INTRODUCTION.

The first edition of the "Catalogue of City Councils," etc., was published in 1891, and was compiled by the late William H. Whitmore, at that time Record Commissioner. The lists are prepared mainly from portions of other publications, and in compiling the present volume the general plan of the earlier edition has been observed.

The first list of members of the City Council (pages 41-210) gives the chronological order of their entry into either branch of the City Council, and by this plan the entire public service of each member is shown under his name.

The second portion consists of tables showing the members of both branches in each year from 1822 to 1907, inclusive, printed from the plates heretofore used in the Municipal Register. These lists include those for Roxbury and Charlestown, and have been carefully revised and the indexes "starred" for the deceased members.

In the Preface (pages 7-40) will be found the ward boundaries as established in 1822, 1838, 1850, 1865, 1875 and 1895. These ordinances are indispensable to an understanding of the lists, as members appear to have represented different wards at various times, when there had been no real change in the territory.

On pages 361-369 will be found the selectmen of Boston from 1634-1821, arranged in a form which shows the construction of the annual boards, and the years of service of the members.

The heads of the principal departments of the City Government are recorded annually in the Municipal Register. On pages 371-402 an attempt has been made to bring these lists into a complete, continuous register and arranged in such manner as to show the departmental changes that have been made from time to time; omissions and errors may be found, which can be corrected in future issues. It should be stated, however, that in regard to the larger boards, no attempt has been made to note all the details of appointments, resignations, or holding over. The periods of office vary in the different boards, and must be considered in each case, as the calendar year only is noted. The ex officio members are not noted, as in most cases the members chosen from the citizens at large have held the control of the boards.

Errors or omissions noted by any reader may be communicated to this office.

JOHN F. DEVER,
Clerk of Committees.

PREFACE.

As the Common Council has always consisted of members elected from the several wards, it will be of service to have a statement of the boundaries of the wards as they have been from time to time established. These lines were established in 1822, 1838, 1850, 1865, 1875 and 1895.

The first division, in 1822, was made by the selectmen of Boston, under the power given in the act establishing the city. It was based on the number of inhabitants as shown by the last preceding census taken by the United States, and the City Council was empowered to alter the lines not oftener than once in ten years.

The second division was not made, however, until 1838, when an ordinance was passed, September 20. Our text is taken from the Municipal Register for 1846, which seems to be the earliest volume containing it.

The third division was made by ordinance passed June 24, 1850. This was made necessary by the acceptance, April 29, 1850, of chapter 167 of Acts of 1850, which provided that divisions of wards in Boston should be based on legal voters instead of inhabitants.

By chapter 7 of Acts of 1865 it was provided that every city might make a new division of wards in 1865 and every tenth year thereafter, on the basis of voters as shown in the state census of such year. Accordingly a fourth division was made by ordinance of November 10, 1865.

The fifth division was made by ordinance of November 16, 1875. An attempt was made ten years later to revise the lines under the law of 1865, but the Supreme Court, in reply to questions put by the Legislature, decided that there had been a mistake in the construction of the law, and this division of 1885 was set aside. The sixth division was made in 1895 (Ordinance 1895, chapter 2), under authority given by the Legislature (Statute 1893, chapter 417).

* FIRST DIVISION OF WARDS, IN 1822.

The following extract from the records of the selectmen of Boston, under date of March 13, 1822, gives the first ward lines of the new city:

* This description will also be found in the Boston Directory for 1822. In the Directory for 1821 will be found the wards as "established by the Committee chosen for that purpose, June 17, 1805."
W. H. W.

The Committee appointed on the subject of new Districting Wards, made the following report, which was read, accepted & ordered to be signed by each member of the Board, and published for the information of the Inhabitants.— viz —

SELECTMEN'S ROOM March 13. 1822.

Whereas it is provided, in the second section of an Act, entitled, "An Act establishing the City of Boston," as follows—

SIXTH DIVISION OF WARDS, IN 1895.

New wards were established for the city in the year 1895, the first division into new wards since the year 1875.<sup>1</sup> An attempt was made by the City Council to make a new division of wards in the year 1885, and an ordinance to that effect was prepared by a special committee appointed for the purpose and passed by the City Council, and approved by the Mayor.<sup>2</sup> Certain questions were raised, however, in the General Court of 1886, relative to establishing State, senatorial and representative districts, and as to whether such districts should be established according to the territorial boundaries of cities and towns and their wards as they existed on the first day of May, 1885, or whether new ward lines, as in the case of the City of Boston, should be followed. On May 21, 1886, the opinion of the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court was asked by the Legislature on this matter, and they decided that the district divisions referred to must be made according to territorial and other boundaries existing on the first day of May, 1885, and that the new ward divisions were illegal.<sup>3</sup> On account of this opinion of the Justices of the Supreme Judicial Court, an act was passed by the Legislature in June, 1886,<sup>4</sup> which provided that the several wards, precincts, and assessment districts of the several cities of the Commonwealth, existing May 1, 1885, should be established as the wards, precincts, and assessment districts of said cities, any acts or ordinances of the city councils of said cities to the contrary notwithstanding. The new division of wards was thus set aside and the ward lines established in 1875 remained in effect until they were changed in 1895, and established under the provisions of chapter 417, of the Acts of 1893, as follows:

<sup>1</sup> An ordinance providing for a new division of the city into wards, passed November 16, 1875. An ordinance to make Breed's Island, so called, part of Ward 1, passed December 4, 1875. ## BIBLIOGRAPHICAL NOTE.

The "Rules and Orders of the Common Council" were first published in 1822, and were continued annually till 1841, when the title was changed to "Municipal Register." The list of members of the City Council for each year were given; and in 1843, for the first time, a consolidated list was inserted giving all the members from 1822. This list, with the necessary changes, was printed in 1845, 1846, 1848 and 1849, the members from each ward being grouped together. In 1850, for the first time, the City Council for each year was printed collectively, in the style which has since been followed.*

W. H. W.]

In 1843 a most inexplicable confusion was made in respect to Wards 8 and 9. The list puts all of the members from Ward 8 who served prior to 1839 (when there was a new division into wards) under Ward 9, and those from Ward 9 under the head of Ward 8, and this error for the years 1822-1838 was continued in the Municipal Register through the issue for 1890. It has been corrected in the tables which are hereinafter given. I cannot explain this idea, because although Wards 8 and 9 did in 1843, in a measure, exchange numbers, yet the boundaries of the new wards varied quite essentially from those formerly existing. At all events the lists now printed give the members in each year according to the wards in and for which they were elected.

These lists were carefully revised in 1890 by C. W. Ernst, Esq., and again by Frederick E. Goodrich, Esq., and quite a number of errors were corrected. The principal ones are, in 1827, Ward 4, Quincy Tufts is substituted for William R. P. Washburn; in 1835, Joseph H. Hayward is added as an alderman; in 1837, Ward 6, George W. Bazin is struck out and Jonathan Chapman inserted; in 1839, Thomas Richardson is removed from the aldermen and Samuel Quincy inserted, and in Ward 7 Elbridge G. Austin is added; in 1843, the contested seats in Ward 1 are shown; in 1844, Ward 3, John Snelling is dropped and James Boynton substituted; and in 1863, Ward 3, Nicholas J. Bean is added.

The lists of the City Councils of Roxbury and Charlestown were first added to the Boston Municipal Register in 1888. The City of Roxbury published its Register annually, the first being for 1846-7, then 47-48, 48-49, 49-50, the Council being organized on the first Monday in April. February 12, 1850, an act was passed changing the date to the first Monday in January, and the members for 1850 only held office for nine months. A new Register was printed for 1850, and thereafter in every year including 1867, when Roxbury was annexed to Boston. The Registers for 1855 and 1858 contain a view of the birth-place of Warren; that for 1859 has a portrait of Warren; that of 1860 a portrait of Gen. Henry A. S. Dearborn, the second Mayor; and that of 1861, a portrait of Hon. Samuel Walker.

The City of Charlestown seems to have issued comparatively few editions of its Register. I have seen or have been informed of "The Rules and Orders of the City Council," etc., for 1847, pages, 84; the "Municipal Register" for 1848, pages, 113; and the Municipal Register for 1849, pages, 18 (apparently only a supplement). In 1850 (pages, 108); 1851 (pages, 28);

1852 (pages, 120); 1853 (pages, 28); 1854 (pages, 16); 1856 (pages, 141); 1858 (pages, 16); 1859 (pages, 18); 1863 (pages, 42); 1864 (pages, 161); and 1870 (pages, 192); the Register was issued. Those for 1850, 1852, 1856, 1868 and 1870 contain Rules, Ordinances, Special Laws, etc.; those for 1853, 1854, 1858, 1859 and 1863 were probably only supplements. I am informed that no other editions were published. The City Documents were issued annually in bound volumes, the latest being dated in 1872.

PART II.

THE following pages contain the lists of Town Officers of Boston, the Annual Tables of the City Council from 1822 to 1908 and the Lists of the City Councils of Roxbury and Charlestown, all of which have been published in the Municipal Register heretofore, but which were omitted therefrom in 1891.

The Lists of Town and Municipal Officers have been carefully examined, and a new arrangement has been made of those heretofore printed in the Register.

NOTE.—No election in 1646 is recorded, but a meeting of these eight men is entered 25th 11mo., 1646. It may be, therefore, presumed that they had been duly chosen that year, and possibly a ninth man.

<sup>1</sup>In 1776 the record is confused. Scollay, Austin, Wendell and Pitts were chosen, and served all the year. Newell declined. Hancock and Marshall undoubtedly declined, though not so marked, as in the afternoon the meeting chose three more, viz., Storer, Appleton and White (printed Records, p. 232). I think White declined, though Storer is so marked, as Storer served and White did not. Appleton served in July and not later, and in August Greenleaf and Bromfield were chosen. (Records, p. 240.)

In 1777 the number of selectmen was increased to nine.

[illegible]

In 1780, '81, '82, '83 and '84 only seven selectmen were chosen.- Many persons elected in '85 and '86 resigned or declined.

The members must be citizens of Boston who have resided in the city for at least two years preceding the date of their appointment. The two principal political parties must be represented after the first appointments. The term of the members will be six years; one member retiring every two years. The board was created to exercise all the powers and perform all the duties conferred or imposed upon the Board of Police of the City of Boston by sections 10 to 90 (both inclusive) of chapter 100 of the Revised Laws, and amendments thereof, relative to intoxicating liquors; and by chapter 102 of the Revised Laws and amendments thereof, relative to innholders and common victuallers.

By chapter 291 of the Acts of 1906, the powers and duties of the Board of Police relative to the listing and registration of voters were transferred to a Listing Board, to be composed of the Police Commissioner and one member of the Board of Election Commissioners to be annually appointed by the Mayor of Boston. Such member must belong to that one of the two leading parties of which the Police Commissioner is not a member. In case of disagreement the Chief Justice of the Municipal Court becomes a member for the purpose of settling such disagreement.
